Not Applicable.

EXPLANATION:

Since 2012, A Reason to Survive (ARTS) has had a home in National City in the old Library building at 200 East 12th Street. Since then, ARTS has worked to positively impact the lives of our young community residents and bring their creativity and imagination to the surface through free programs at the Arts Center. The staff at ARTS have been instrumental in the installation of art projects throughout the City, including the "A" Avenue Art Wall. ARTS staff have also participated in programs and events, including the Dia de los Muertos event and Community Services Day.

As part of the agreement between ARTS and the City of National City, ARTS presents an overview of its projects and programs every year.
