Article 2. Effective Date and Term. This Agreement shall be effective on August 6, 2024, through July 31, 2025. This Agreement may be terminated at any time by either party with sixty (60) days’ written notice to the other. Notice of termination by the FIRM shall be given to the City Manager.

Upon request, FIRM may provide other labor and employment legal services, including representing the CITY in unfair labor practice, arbitration, litigation, mediation, fact-finding, appeals and other hearings that may relate to labor relations and labor negotiations, as well as advising the CITY on non-labor related employment law matters. Compensation for these “other labor and employment legal services” shall be as set forth in Article 4 of this Agreement..

Article 4. Compensation. Compensation paid under this Agreement shall be in accordance with the rate schedule attached as Exhibit A to this Agreement.

- A. The FIRM shall not use more than one attorney for the same specific task without the CITY’S approval. The FIRM may use the minimum number of attorneys for this engagement consistent with good professional practice after consulting with and obtaining approval by the CITY.
- B. The FIRM shall keep the CITY advised monthly as to the level of attorney hours and client services performed under Article 3.

C. The CITY further agrees to reimburse the FIRM, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article, for telephone, fax, mail, messengers, federal express deliveries, document reproduction, client-requested clerical overtime, lodging, and similar out-of-pocket expenses charged by the FIRM as a standard practice to its clients generally, with the exception of meals. In any billing for disbursements, the FIRM shall provide the CITY with a statement breaking down the amounts by category of expense. The following items shall not be reimbursed, unless the CITY has specifically agreed otherwise:

(1) Word Processing, clerical or secretarial charges, whether expressed as a dollar disbursement or time charge.

(2) Storage of open or closed files, rent, electricity, local telephone, postage, receipts or transmission of telecopier documents, or any other items traditionally associated with overhead.

(6) Equipment, books, periodicals, research materials, Westlaw/Lexis or like items.

(7) Express charges, overnight mail charges, messenger services or the like, without the CITY'S prior consent. The CITY expects these expenses to be incurred in emergency situations only. (8) Meals.

(9) Late payment charge or interest. Due to the nature of the CITY'S payment process, the CITY will not pay any late charges or interest charges to bills. Every effort will be made to pay bills promptly.

The individual time and disbursement records customarily maintained by the FIRM for billing evaluation and review purposes shall be made available to the CITY in support of bills rendered by the FIRM.

E. The FIRM agrees to forward to the CITY a statement of account for each one-month period of services under this Agreement, and the CITY agrees to compensate the FIRM on this basis. The FIRM will consult monthly with the CITY as to the number of attorney hours and client disbursements which have been incurred to date under this Agreement, and as to future expected levels of hours and disbursements.

F. Billing Format. Each billing entry must be complete, discrete and appropriate.

- (1) Complete.
 - (a) Each entry must name the person or persons involved. For instance, telephone calls must include the names of all participants.
 - (b) The date the work was performed must be included.
 - (c) The hours should be billed in .10 hour increments.
 - (d) The specific task performed should be described, and the related work product should be reference (“telephone call re: trial brief,” “interview in preparation for deposition”).
 - (e) The biller’s professional capacity (partner, associate, paralegal, etc.) should be included.

(2) Discrete: Each task must be set out as a discrete billing entry; neither narrative nor block billing is acceptable.

- (3) Appropriate.

For example, the CITY will not pay for secretarial time, word processing time, air conditioning, rental of equipment, including computers, meals served at meetings, postage, online research, or the overhead costs of sending or receiving faxes. Neither will the CITY pay for outside expenses such as messenger delivery fees, outside photocopying, videotaping of depositions, investigative services, outside computer litigation support services, or overnight mail.
 - (b) Due to the nature of the CITY’S payment process, the CITY will not pay any late charges. Every effort will be made to pay bills promptly.

G. Staffing. Every legal matter should have a primarily responsible attorney and a paralegal assigned. Ultimately, staffing is a CITY decision, and the CITY’S representative may review staffing to insure that it is optimal to achieve the goals of the engagement at the least cost.

(1) Paralegals are to be used to the maximum extent possible to enhance efficiency and cost-effectiveness. All tasks typically considered associate work should be considered for assignment to a paralegal. Written authorization from the CITY must be had before associate hours billed exceed paralegal hours billed.

(2) Once an attorney is given primary responsibility for an engagement, that person should continue on the legal matter until the matter is concluded or the attorney leaves the FIRM. The CITY will not pay the costs of bringing a new attorney up to speed.

(3) If more than one attorney is going to perform the same task, prior approval from the CITY must be had. This includes document review.

Article 5. Independent Contractor. The FIRM shall perform services as an independent contractor. It is understood that this contract is for unique professional services. Accordingly, the duties specified in this Agreement may not be assigned or delegated by the FIRM
